EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

SECURING CAREER PATHS

FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Main objective

The European project DESC aims at promoting equal employment opportunities and securing professional career paths for young people with disabilities in Europe as advocated in article 27 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UN CRPD).

Main Actions

- ⇒ Identifying models of promising practices in the field of securing professional career paths. Production of a guide including selected promising practices. Dissemination of the guide among social and employment services in Europe, as well as civil society partners.
- ⇒ Giving access to young people with disabilities to facilitate services securing professional career paths through training of staff. The project partners will offer short-term training events for social workers, using a training session framework.

- ⇒ Launching of the European Disability Employment Week - EDEW. The development of the EDEW is based on the French experience organising the “Semaine pour l’emploi des personnes handicapées –SEPH”.

Main Events

Actions in both European and national level

3 International Conferences in Brussels for the 2015 European Disability Employment Week and Paris for 2016 and 2017 EDEW.

Every year to celebrate the EDEW, partner countries’ events will be organised to:

- ⇒ Raise awareness among society
- ⇒ Raise awareness among business and enterprises
- ⇒ Facilitate the matching between employees and employers
